Wine festival auction lots prove just about any luxury is possible

SPECIAL TO FLORIDA WEEKLY

An adventure through Southeast Asia with visits to royal palaces and Mt. Everest.

Grand format bottles of the first five vintages of H. William Harlan's newest project.

A visit with celebrity jeweler Robert Procop in his Beverly Hills home for a private wine tasting and the opportunity to design a pair of wine goblets with the master jeweler.

This is just a sampling of the items bound for the auction block at the 14th annual Naples Winter Wine Festival, which takes place at The Ritz-Carlton Golf Resort Jan. 23-25.

Guests will also bid on a 2015 Mercedes-Benz SLS AMG GT Final Edition (one of 350 in the world), tickets to the Golden Globes (including Harvey Weinstein's after party) and a private tour and dinner at the Mondavi Continuum estate in St. Helena, Calif.

Most people can only imagine the possibilities.

"The highlight of the festival has always been the live auction," says Chuck Hallberg, festival co-chair and chair of the auction committee. "We pride ourselves on assembling exceptional auction lots that include extraordinary wine packages, travel adventures and exclusive experiences.

"Each year, we're blown away by the amount of money raised, the generosity of festival attendees and the amazing impact this has for thousands of children and families in need."

Over the years, the festival has raised more than $123 million for the Naples Children & Education Foundation, which gives out annual grants that have provided nearly 200,000 children with the services and resources they need to excel.

In addition to the grand tasting and auction, guests attend private dinners prepared by the country's finest chefs and paired with wines from vintners spanning the globe. Chef de cuisine for 2015 is Barbara Lynch, CEO of Barbara Lynch Gruppo, comprised of many of Boston's best restaurants and culinary experiences, including No. 9 Park, B&G Oysters and Menton, Boston's only AAA Five-Diamond, Forbes Five-Star, and Relais & Châteaux property.

Recently named Outstanding Restaurateur by the James Beard Foundation, Ms. Lynch is a four-time James Beard Award winner and is the only female in the country to hold the title of Grand Chef Relais & Châteaux.

Ms. Lynch will be joined by 17 all-star chefs and 41 acclaimed vintners for the festival weekend.

Ticket packages start at $8,500 per couple and include a $20,000 package that comes with reserved seating for a party of four at the same vintner dinner and at the live auction. For more information, call (888) 837-4919 or visit napleswinefestival.com. ■
